

Park Lane Special School

SMSC statement for Individuality.

The Individuality value consists of subjects PSHCE, Languages, and PE.

The Individuality values contribute to the pupils SMSC and British Values development by:

Spiritual Development

- Enjoyment of sessions.
- Pupils develop a variety of skills based on their own abilities that allows them to express their own feelings and be amazed by what their bodies can do.

Moral Development

- Pupils follow the rules in the hall/classroom/school to ensure that they are safe.
- Pupils developing their moral stance through developing a sense of fair play and positive sporting behaviour.

Social Development

- Working with other students or in small groups cooperatively.
- Pupils learning to handle success and defeat.

Cultural Development

- Working in partnership with others exploring different activities. Working together to help one another – team game or paired work.
- Making own choices in school/lesson – choice boards.
- Treating everyone equally – sharing resources.
- Pupils are given the opportunity to learn games and dances from different traditions.
